

Bundle of the Month – BUSINESS MAX

It's like a mini-VIP experience right from the start when you're seated on board Jetstar's Business Class, there's something special about being able to skip the lines and settle into that comfy seat first. Priority boarding can make all the difference, especially when you're ready to relax before take-off.

When purchasing a Business Max Bundle, your clients' holiday-mode will be ON from the second they walk in the airport, taking the time to relax in the lounge* and utilising other perks that will make them wish for a longer flight.

Before take-off, your customers can sip some bubbles, choose their preferred meal and scroll through a range of movies and series that is regularly updated. Selfies for "the Gram" are a must to flex your experience from that comfy and wide leather seat.

Check out the full offering:

- Qantas Points and Status Credits, Qantas Business Rewards or Emirates Skywards Miles loyalty points for members of affiliated frequent flyer programs.
- No change fees for all changes, including origin and destination (fare difference applies)
- Flight cancellation - refundable for a fee
- Lounge access at Qantas Club or partner lounges (where available)

One stop to 3K destinations from AU

14 destinations including Singapore are available as a 1 stop from Melbourne and Perth. For example, your clients can enjoy a Singapore-sling on a mini break or just a transit on their way to one of these 3 destinations.

COLOMBO:*

One of the new-routes-on-the-block for Jetstar Asia flying into Colombo is going to be a culinary delight for your travellers. Renowned as a tropical destination with just a hint of spice they're senses will be overloaded with fresh seafood from a beachfront restaurant or a fiery curry from one of the many street vendors. They can also relax and unwind at the palm-fringed beaches, go on an architectural tour of the colonial buildings and many temples, or tick off an UNESCO site visit to Anuradhapura.

MANILA:*

Manila is on a revitalisation journey of its own, the city has started to renovate the Masig River area which bisects the metro Manila into north and south, they're making it easier for people to navigate the bustling city. By day your clients can walk the cobblestone streets and tick off all the museums, the world's oldest Chinatown and ginormous shopping malls and by night they can dress up and go to a swanky Brazilian-Japanese restaurant (what a food combo?) located at BCG - the Bonifacio Global City neighbourhood, then continue to dance the night away at one many ritzy rooftop-bars.

SURABAYA:

This place is for your adventurous clients - its home to an active volcano! Your clients will feel like they've stepped onto the set of a sci-fi movie set at the Bromo Tengger Semeru National Park. They can then hike up to the smouldering crater at the summit of Mount Bromo. It's a city that was under colonial rule back in the day so has many historic sites to visit. Fun fact - you can step inside a real Soviet Russian submarine that served in the Indonesian Navy.

*Subject to government and regulatory approvals. All schedules subject to change, including last minute aircraft changes.

Discover Korea 2024

Our fabulous and informative Claire Clark recently attended the Discover Korea 2024 event in both Sydney & Brisbane. She had an amazing time chatting to all the attendees about the Jetstar routes between SYD & BNE to Seoul (ICN). Did you know that JQ fly to ICN 4 x weekly from Sydney and 3 x weekly from Brissy? The home of K-Pop and kimchi is just a 10 hour hop away!

Congratulations to the lucky prize winners who will get to experience the wonders of Korea!
